Drybar Blows Into Center City

APRIL 1, 2016 – Drybar is pleased to announce the upcoming opening of its first Philadelphia location in Center City later this spring. This 1,975 square foot location will consist of 10 styling chairs and will feature all of the signature elements that define the Drybar experience.

“We are beyond thrilled to finally be opening our first Philadelphia location, especially in a thriving neighborhood like Center City” said Alli Webb, founder of Drybar. “Our clients have been anxiously awaiting a location in Philly and we are excited to join Center City’s funky lofts and glam high rises.” Drybar will be conveniently located next to Corner Bakery Café, Cosi and AT&T.

Named one of the top “100 Brilliant Ideas of 2010” by Entrepreneur magazine and New York Magazine’s Boom Brands of 2013, Drybar is based on a simple concept of focusing on one thing and being the best at it: Blowouts. The idea was a natural one for curly-haired founder Alli Webb, a longtime professional stylist, who constantly found herself overpaying for blowouts at traditional salons. In 2013, Alli was named one of the 100 Most Creative People in Business by Fast Company, and was featured on the Cosmo 2013 Power List by Cosmopolitan magazine, as well as Fortune’s 40 under 40 List.

Drybar provides professional blowouts at a flat price, regardless of hair length or thickness (wash included!) and the list of signature styles reads like a traditional cocktail menu; the Cosmo (lots of loose curls), the Straight Up (straight with a little body), the Southern Comfort (big hair, lots of volume), the Mai Tai (messy and beachy), the Manhattan (sleek and smooth) the Dirty Martini (tousled and textured) and, for the little ladies, the Shirley Temple.

At the core of the experience is Drybar’s dedication to over-the-top customer service and obsessive attention to every last detail, and the Center City shop is no exception. It will feature Drybar’s signature design, including custom Italian chairs, tufted fabric walls, marble bars with built-in phone docking stations, and flat screens featuring cult favorite chick flicks. Drybar also offers a full line of professional hair styling products & tools, aptly named in keeping with the pervasive bar theme, all of which were created for the perfect blowout. The line launched exclusively with Sephora in March of 2013, and is now in all 319 U.S. Sephora doors. This past fall, Drybar launched its product line in all 117 U.S. Nordstrom doors, 53 Canadian Sephora doors, and opened its first store-within-a-store concept in Nordstrom’s Pacific Centre flagship store in Vancouver, B.C. With additional openings on the horizon in Seattle, Miami, Toronto and Los Angeles, the brand is on track to have over 70 locations by the end of 2016.
